Note:

- Tuition fees are payable in two equal installments on 1 June 2026 and 1 December 2026. Last date for payment without late fees: 30 June 2026 and 31 December 2026.
- Transport service will be offered as a service to families on a cost-neutral basis, as long as minimum number of students express a need in a given locality.

Fees Policy:

- All students are required to pay the Academy fees on a timely basis.
- On first joining, students must pay the admission fees (non-refundable), tuition fee, and caution money deposit (refundable) in advance, prior to attending the Academy, by the designated date.
- Students are required to pay tuition and transport fees (if applicable), based on the invoice issued through BEFTN or direct deposit at the bank. A discount of 3% is available on payment of the full tuition fee for the academic year by the deadline.
- Notice of cancellation for school transport must be given in writing to the Transport Supervisor 2 months in advance. Otherwise 2 months' transport fees will be deducted from the security deposit.
- Field trips and any other such off-campus educational experiences which are not included as part of the compulsory curriculum are charged as and when the same is conducted.
- Exam fees for MYP and DP will be billed separately based on the actual fee charged by the IB, in addition to any other related expenses.
- Late fee payment: Fees not paid within 30 calendar days of the due date (i.e., by 30 June 2026 and 31 December 2026) will attract a late fee penalty of 2% per month on the outstanding balance at the end of the month.
- The Aga Khan Academy Dhaka will send two reminders to the parent, requesting payment in full of all fees due (along with late fines if applicable). The parents are responsible for ensuring that the Academy has their updated and functional email addresses.

- The following actions will be taken for non-payment:
  - If the payment is not made within the stipulated time of the first reminder, the student's report cards will be archived on ManageBac.
  - If payment is not received in the next 7 days of the above action, the student shall not be allowed to attend classes.
  - If payment is still not received from the above action, a second and final reminder will be issued for payment in the next 7 days. Should the payment remain outstanding after this period, the student will be de-enrolled from the Academy.
- In the case of a student being de-enrolled or expelled, no fees will be refunded except for the caution money deposit.
- The Academy retains the right to set off or adjust dues from the caution money deposit or any other amounts the family owes to the Academy.
- Claims for refund of caution money deposit are to be made in writing, using the required form, within one year of the date of leaving the Academy.
- The Academy reserves the right to withhold results, school certificates, transfer certificates, transcripts, university referrals or any other information and/or documents in the event that fees or any other dues payable to the Academy are outstanding or not paid in the manner directed.
- Student withdrawals and notices:
  - The communication of withdrawal by the parent for the beginning of the next academic year must be sent in writing to the respective school principal's office by 31st March of the current academic year.
  - If the communication is received after the 31st of March, the withdrawing student's full first-term fee for the next academic year must be paid.
  - If the withdrawal is to take place in the middle of the academic year, the Academy requires 90 days' written notice prior to the beginning of the next term.
  - If the withdrawal application is not received 90 days before the beginning of the next term then the following charges shall apply:
    - 60-89 days before the start of the next term will be charged 25% of the next term's fees.
    - 30-59 days before the start of the next term will be charged 50% of the next term's fees.
    - Less than 30 days before the start of the next term will be charged 75% of the next term's fees.
    - No refund on the next term's fee shall be given after the start of the next term.
    - The start of the term is defined as the day on which classes begin as per the official calendar as shared with the parent.
- Please note that any parent making payments through the BEFTN option must send their payment receipt to finance.dhaka@agakhanacademies.org every time they make a payment; otherwise, the Academy will be unable to credit the student’s account.
- The Board of Directors of Aga Khan Education Service, Bangladesh, reserves the right to make changes to these rules from time to time as it deems necessary.
